

SWAPS

Before completing this charm, girls should have completed the Wild Wonders Patch.

PART 1

Learn about SWAPS.

- » What does SWAPS mean?
- » What are the origins of SWAPS?
- » What is the idea behind SWAPS?
- » Why do Girl Scouts give each other SWAPS?
- » What is the etiquette for trading SWAPS?

PART 2

Make a SWAP

Make a SWAP to share with your troop at your next meeting.

- » Use the internet (Pinterest or Google) in order to find different SWAPS. Remember, SWAPS are simple and girls should be able to make them themselves, even Daisies.

Teach your troop how to make the SWAP.

PART 3

SWAP holders

With your troop or on your own, come up with a way to hold all your SWAPS. This will come in handy as you attend more Girl Scout events and get more SWAPS. It can be a hat, a banner, a jacket, or any other item you create!

At your next big Girl Scout event, bring SWAPS to share with your GS Sisters.
