

Emily Coronado

Visual and Performing Arts Mural

Emily created a mural at Centennial High School dedicated to performing and visual arts to engage students to get involved in these programs. Emily spoke with students of all grades to communicate the message of her mural, encouraging them to participate in the arts while emphasizing the benefits. After the completion of her project, Emily was contacted by multiple students who started to engage in the arts as well as the drama club officers who noticed an increase in involvement. A Girl Scout of seven years, Emily took her lifelong passion for various art forms and brought it to life in hopes of benefiting her school and the social lives of her fellow students, all of which earned her the prestigious Gold Award honor. Emily is a graduate of Centennial High School and currently attends Glendale Community College where she studies fine arts illustration.

