

LATINO COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT VOLUNTEER

Service Team Position Description

- SUMMARY The Latino Community Engagement Volunteer will serve as an ambassador of Girl Scouts in the Latino/Hispanic community. This volunteer position will work closely with Council staff and Service Team leaders to grow our relationship with the Latino/Hispanic community.
- SUPPORTED BY Membership Support Executive (MSE) in partnership with the Innovation Manager for the Latino Community.
- APPOINTMENT Appointed by MSE in partnership with the Innovation Manager for the Latino Community for 1 year; reappointment based on annual evaluation.
-

RESPONSIBILITIES/TASKS

- » Present a positive image of Girl Scouting to girls, volunteers and community members.
- » Participate as an active member of Service Unit providing support to other roles such as the Getting Started Coach.
- » Support current members, new troops and/or families with translation assistance, information, training and resources.
- » Help plan and support Service Unit recruitment and retention plans.
- » Promote and serve as an ambassador for Girl Scouts and its benefits in the Latino Community
- » Girl focus: Empower girls to lead activities, learn by doing, and cooperate with others on current issues that involve their interests and needs, while having fun.
- » Personal integrity: Demonstrate dependability, honesty, and credibility.
- » Adaptability: Adjust, modify own behavior, and remain flexible and tolerant in response to changing situations and environments.
- » Oral communication: Express ideas and facts clearly and accurately.
- » Foster diversity: Understand, respect, and embrace differences.

STEPS TO BECOME A LATINO COMMUNITY ADVOCATE

- » Must be fluent in Spanish (Written and Oral)
- » Knowledge of your community and its resources
- » Must be a registered member of GSUSA with a completed background check.
- » Practice welcoming and inclusive behavior toward people of all ages, races, religions, cultures, abilities, sexual orientation, gender, educational, and economic backgrounds.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR TIME AND COMMITMENT.